Take a full day classic city sightseeing in the multifaceted metropolis of Budapest with English speaking tour guide with all the must-see attractions of both sides of the majestic river Danube via Buda Castle District, Parliament, Saint Stephen's Basilica, Andrassy Avenue, Heroes' Square, City Park.

BUDA CASTLE DISTRICT

Take a walk on the cobblestoned quaint streets of the Buda Castle District and see Matthias Church, the Royal Palace. Enjoy the unforgettable views from the Panorama Terrace of the Fisherman's Bastion. Meet locals on the slopes of the Buda Castle hill, in the finely restored historic Castle Garden still in the UNESCO World heritage listed area.

DOWNTOWN BUDAPEST

Pest is the flat side of the city of Budapest, do not miss the promenade along the banks of the river Danube aka. Dunakorzó, the stone lions guarding the Chain Bridge, and the landmark building of Hungary, the Parliament, third largest of its kind in the world. After having a fine lunch highlighting traditional Hungarian cuisine, let us visit Saint Stephen's Basilica. The most important points of interests on the Little Boulevard are the great Market Hall, the National Museum and the world's largest synagogue. The crown jewel of the Andrassy Avenue is the Hungarian State Opera House a neo-renaissance masterpiece from the 19th century. The urbanistic ensemble of the Avenue with Heroes' Square is part of the UNESCO World Heritage listed area.

CITY PARK

Our walk in the City Park is starting from Heroes' Square, the most significant figures of Hungarian history depicted in the Millennium memorial from 1896. Széchenyi Spa, Budapest Zoo, Vajdahunyad Castle and contemporary architectural gems of House of Music and Museum of Ethnography are in the second largest public park of the capital city.
