Budapest without the river Danube is simply unimaginable. Do not miss the most beautiful views of Budapest, opening from the deck of a river cruise ship on the Danube. The pantry of Budapest, Europe's most beautiful market hall is full of life, tastes – a one-of-a-kind experience for all visitors.

DANUBE RIVER CRUISE

Discover the UNESCO World Heritage listed center of Budapest during a 70 minutes long sightseeing river cruise with audio-guide available in 30 languages. You can marvel at the most important attractions, like the Parliament, the Buda Castle Palace, Matthias Church, Fisherman's Bastion, the iconic bridges connecting Buda and Pest, or the Citadel topping Gellert hill in full comfort from a glass covered 360-degree panoramic deck with refreshing drink.

GREAT MARKET HALL

The great neogothic cast-iron structure building, opened in 1897, houses Europe's most beautiful Market Hall. This is the largest covered marketplace in Budapest, full of life, tastes and stories told by local sellers who also offer tasty bites of their artisan products. Rich selection of Hungarian fruits, vegetables, pickles, sausages, fish, dairy and bakery products, special gastro souvenirs of traditional Hungarian specialties e.g. red pepper aka. paprika, foie gras, acacia honey or fine dessert wine from the UNESCO World Heritage listed Tokaj region. Take a tasteful lunch in the restaurant of the Great Market Hall made of super-fresh ingredients: welcome bites from a cute cup and a three-course Hungarian menu with just-like-at-home style dishes served on authentic plates.

UPON moments

River cruise program on the gentle waves of the majestic Danube. Buzzling metropolis vibe on the boulevards and the market hall.
