The picturesque meeting of the curving Danube and the Visegrad mountain range makes the Danube Bend one of the most beautiful tourist destination of Hungary. Natural beauties, historical places and artistic attractions offer an exciting experience.

VISEGRÁD

Visegrad was once the capital and the most important city in medieval Hungary, King Matthias and Queen Beatrix made renaissance culture flourished in the 16th century. See the exhibition of the Holy Crown and the history of the Castle, and the wax museum recalling the 1335 meeting of the Central European kings. From the emblematic Citadel sitting on the hilltop breathtaking panoramic views are opening to the Danube Bend. Continue your time travelling in the 500-year-old Renaissance Restaurant with a royal feast.

ESZTERGOM

Esztergom is the home of the largest church of Hungary, where the coronation of the first Hungarian king, Saint Stephen was held, this is the center of the Hungarian Roman Catholic Church. The Maria Valeria Bridge connects Esztergom with Sturovo on the left bank, the Slovakian side of the river Danube. Nearby Dobogoko and its natural region is a special place, allegedly here is the Anahata, the Heart chakra of the Earth, here is the place where power lines meet according to some views.

SZENTENDRE

Szentendre, the gate of the Danube Bend with its narrow streets, fully packed with colorful, little, old houses and baroque church towers, is a real gem of the region. This is a favorite excursion since its closeness to Budapest and the Mediterranean vibes. This is the city of painters, hundreds of artists are living and creating their artworks in the artist's colony. The guided tour will lead you to nice galleries and exhibitions (e.g. Margit Kovács Ceramic Collection, Szamos Marzipan House, Ferenczi Collection).
